Scoring Tools - New	A copy of the 2017 local tool and the HUD Published review tool are posted on the website.	The Scoring Subcommittee has incorporated the local scoring criteria from the local New Project tool into the HUD review tool which will be used to review new project applications.
Form 2880	There are substantive changes in the 2880 form for 2017 which have generated several questions. All applicants are strongly encouraged to review the detailed instructions for the 2880 provided by HUD as well as the Weekly Update posted on August 9th re: How to Complete the 2880. Note: The governmental assistance and interested parties sections of the form require detailed information. If your organization has more than one HUD project, receives CDBG or other State and Local public funds that total more than $200,000, these must be shown in the government resources. Also, Interested parties include persons and organizations that	Project level reviews by Technical Assistance are underway. Please be prepared to quickly update the financial information in the 2880. A copy of your organizations fund-accounting budget or the independent audit could be very helpful.

	either contribute $50,000 or more to, or receive $50,000 or more from the project must be listed. Many applications indicate "NA" in both sections. It is critical that the agency point of contact (POC) ensures this information is accurate. Your authorized representative certifies to the accuracy of this document in Section I of the application.
NEW Project Applicants	There are several supplemental documents required for new applications. A review of the applications in Dropbox indicates that the majority of the new applications are missing the Independent Audit and associated statements. The agency POC for new applications should review the documents uploaded in Dropbox and upload any missing documents immediately per the checklist that was provided earlier.	Review of New Applications is underway. All documents requested must be uploaded to Dropbox by Friday morning, August 25th.
